

“The prevention of child abuse and protection of young people are two of our greatest shared responsibilities.”

— Archbishop Charles Chaput

Mandated Reporters

Under Pennsylvania law, any person, paid or unpaid, who works, volunteers and/or comes into direct contact with children in a program, activity or service is a mandated reporter and must immediately report suspicions of child abuse or neglect.

Within the Archdiocese, this includes all members of clergy, parish and school staff, and volunteers who are likely to come into direct contact with children.

What must be reported?

The Standard for reporting suspected abuse/neglect in Pennsylvania is a “reasonable cause to believe” that a child is the victim of abuse/neglect. First hand observation of abuse is not required.

Indicators of Abuse (Source: PA Family Support Alliance)

As mandated reporters, it is important that you are able to recognize indicators of abuse.

Signs of Physical Abuse

- Uncomfortable with physical contact
- Afraid to go home
- Dressed inappropriately for the weather
- Cringes when approached by an adult (fears getting hit)
- Overreacts to accidents such as spilling milk
- Does not want to talk about home life
- Extreme attachment to parents
- Extreme attentiveness to needs of parents

Signs of Neglect or Psychological Abuse

- Unattended medical needs
- Consistent lack of supervision
- Persistent hunger, poor hygiene or inappropriate dress
- Distended stomach or emaciated body
- Delayed physical development
- Substance abuse
- Regularly displays fatigue or listlessness
- Steals food or begs
- Habit disorders (sucking, rocking, etc.)
- Passive or aggressive behavior extremes
- Neurotic traits such as sleep disorders or inhibition of play

Signs of Sexual Abuse:

- Pain or itching in genital area
- Bruises or bleeding in external genitalia
- Frequent urinary or yeast infections
- Torn, stained or bloody underclothing
- Sexually transmitted diseases
- A child’s report or self-disclosure
- Sexual knowledge beyond what is natural for a child
- Preoccupation with their body
- Acting out sexual behavior
- Withdrawal, chronic depression
- Self devaluation and lack of confidence
- Problems with bedtime or afraid to go to bed
- Bedwetting — especially if it begins in a child who has been dry

How do I make a report if I suspect abuse?

If you suspect a child is being abused or neglected, the follow three steps must be followed:

1. Call ChildLine at 800-932-0313
2. Within 48-hours of your report, submit a written CY-47 report with the county Children & Youth services where the alleged abuse took place.
3. Notify the head of your institution immediately.
